Report of Inter College football Tournament, 2020

We are delighted to announce that Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya actively participated in the highly competitive Inter College Football Tournament 2020 held at PK College, Contai. The tournament saw the participation of 20 colleges affiliated with Vidyasagar University, each showcasing their prowess in football. Under the exceptional leadership of Jishu Krishana Jana, our college's football team displayed remarkable dedication, teamwork, and skills throughout the knockout tournament. The players' hard work and determination culminated in an outstanding performance, leading them to claim the coveted winner's title. We extend our heartfelt appreciation to the Principal of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya for his unwavering support and encouragement. His continuous motivation and guidance have been instrumental in nurturing the talents of our football team and ensuring their success. The tournament provided an excellent platform for colleges to come together, fostering camaraderie and sportsmanship among the participants. All the teams exhibited exemplary sportsmanship and competitive spirit, making the event a grand success. We, at Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya, take immense pride in the achievements of our football team and all the participants. We believe that such events not only promote physical fitness but also in still valuable life skills like discipline, perseverance, and teamwork.

As we celebrate our victory, we also congratulate all the other colleges for their commendable performances in the Inter College Football Tournament 2020. We look forward to participating in more such events in the future, contributing to the promotion of sports and a healthy competitive spirit in our region.
