Report of Yash Storm Relief Programme, 2021

The Yash Storm Relief Programme, organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya on June 9, 2021, at East Amtalia, successfully brought together students, faculty members, and administrative staff in a collective effort to aid those affected by the Yash storm. The initiative encompassed the distribution of essential relief materials, the establishment of a medical camp for healthcare services, and a dedicated clean-up drive to restore the affected areas. The collaborative and dedicated efforts of participants had a significant impact on the community, providing timely assistance and support to alleviate the hardships faced by the residents. The institution expresses gratitude to all involved and looks forward to future community service initiatives.
