Report of "Raksha Bandhan Utsav" celebration, 2022

The Student Union of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya organized a vibrant and heartwarming event to celebrate the auspicious occasion of Raksha Bandhan Utsav on 12th August 2022. The event commenced with a meaningful gesture of spreading love and brotherhood within the local community. As part of the celebrations, a group of students visited nearby localities and tied Rakhis to the residents, symbolizing the bond of protection and affection. This beautiful gesture was warmly received by the locals, and it fostered a sense of unity and harmony among everyone involved.

Following the Rakhi tying activity, a cultural program was held at the prestigious SN Bose Seminar Hall. The program commenced with an enlightening speech by the esteemed Principal, Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra. In his address, Dr. Misra emphasized the significance of Raksha Bandhan Utsav and its role in promoting the spirit of love, respect, and unity among individuals.

The cultural event showcased the rich talent and diversity of our students. The participants presented a variety of cultural programs, including traditional dances, melodious songs, and vibrant skits, all centered around the theme of Raksha Bandhan. The performances were met with applause and appreciation from the audience, creating an atmosphere of joy and celebration.

The event served as a beautiful platform to strengthen the bond among students, faculty, and the local community. It reiterated the importance of embracing the values of compassion, togetherness, and mutual respect in our daily lives.
