Report of Student week celebration , 2023

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya successfully conducted a week-long Student Week Program from January 2nd to January 8th, 2023, aligning with the guidelines of Higher Education, Government of West Bengal. The program featured diverse activities, including an enlightening online seminar with distinguished speakers, a scholarship information session to guide students on available opportunities, a captivating Poster Competition encouraging artistic expression and social messaging, and an intellectually stimulating Quiz Competition fostering healthy competition and academic growth. This holistic approach aimed at providing students with a well-rounded experience, emphasizing not only academic development but also creativity, awareness, and a spirit of healthy competition. The college encourages active participation in such initiatives to enhance the overall educational journey for its students.
