Report of Wall Magazine 2022-2023

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya is pleased to announce the successful completion of the wall magazine publication for all departments during the academic session 2022-2023. This endeavor aimed to showcase the creative talents, achievements, and diverse contributions of our students. The collaborative effort witnessed active participation from students, Department Heads (HODs), faculty members, and administrative staff. Various departments displayed their creativity through articles, poems, artwork, and other captivating content, resulting in a dynamic and informative wall magazine that authentically captures the spirit of our academic community. The magazine's varied content underscored the academic accomplishments, cultural activities, and extracurricular pursuits of our students, providing a platform to foster a sense of community and commemorate shared achievements within the college. The Wall Magazine Publication initiative aligns seamlessly with Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya's commitment to offering a comprehensive educational experience, fostering the expression of ideas, promoting creativity, and highlighting the distinctive contributions of each department.
