Report of flood relief camp at Padma tamili, 2021

A flood relief camp was set up at Padma tamili Village on October 3, 2021, by the NSS members of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya in association with Mugberia Gram Panchayet. The purpose of the camp was to aid people impacted by the flooding. A large number of NSS members and community members attended the event and actively engaged in the relief efforts, making it a success. In addition to offering food, water, and other necessities, the camp also offered counseling, medical support, and other services. In addition, volunteers supported efforts to clean and restore the impacted areas. Programs raising awareness of safety precautions and disaster preparedness were also included in the event. The flood relief camp, where NSS members and locals united, was a monument to the spirit of community service and togetherness.
