Forest Conservation Speech, Poster, and Slogan Writing Competition, 2020

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya successfully organized a Speech, Poster, and Slogan Writing Competition regarding forest conservation on January 24, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. The event was meticulously coordinated by the Department of Geography, aiming to raise awareness and promote active participation in forest conservation efforts.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and administrative staff. The Speech competition provided a platform for articulate presentations on the significance of forest conservation, addressing various aspects such as biodiversity, climate regulation, and sustainable living.

The Poster competition showcased creative expressions of the participants, visually capturing the essence of forest conservation. The artistic interpretations highlighted the beauty of nature and emphasized the need for preserving our forests for future generations.

The Slogan Writing competition added a touch of creativity and brevity, as participants crafted impactful slogans that resonated with the theme of forest conservation. These succinct messages served as powerful reminders of our collective responsibility towards the environment.

The judging panel, consisting of faculty members from the Department of Geography, evaluated the participants based on content, creativity, and relevance to the theme. The winners of each category were felicitated with certificates, acknowledging their contributions to promoting awareness about forest conservation.

The active involvement and meaningful contributions from all participants made the event a success. It not only showcased the talent and dedication of the college community but also fostered a deeper understanding of the importance of preserving our forests.
