Report of pre-Puja celebration activities on the occasion of Durga Puja 2020

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya organized an online pre-Puja celebration on the occasion of Durga Puja 2020 on 20th October. The event brought together students, faculty members, and administrative staff in a virtual space to commemorate this auspicious festival.

The program commenced with an opening speech by the Principal, Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra, who highlighted the importance of such gatherings for our mental well-being, especially during challenging times. Dr. Bidhan Chandra Samanta, the Teacher Council Secretary, and Dr. Prasenjit Ghosh, HOD of History, also shared insightful thoughts on the significance of cultural celebrations.

The cultural segment featured teachers from the Music department, presenting enchanting online recitations of Rabindra Sangeet and various cultural songs. The artistic endeavors of our students were showcased through pre-recorded videos, including captivating dance performances, art exhibitions, and other creative presentations. The interactive nature of the celebration allowed for meaningful engagement, with participants expressing their thoughts, experiences, and festive wishes. It was heartening to witness the diverse talents of our academic community, which added vibrancy to the virtual event.

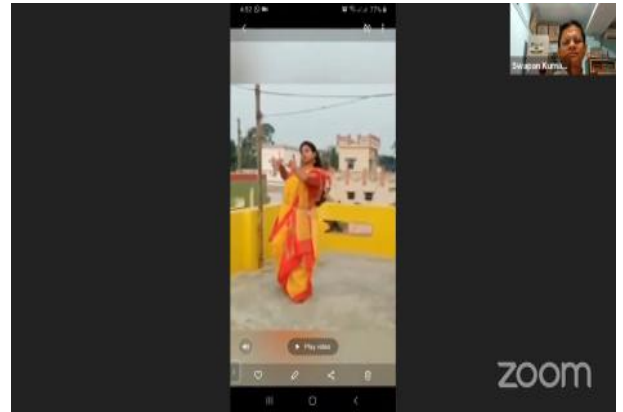

In addition to fostering cultural exchange, the celebration served as a platform for building camaraderie and strengthening the bonds within our academic community. Despite the physical distance, the online platform facilitated a sense of unity and shared joy among participants. The successful coordination of this online pre-Puja celebration underscores the resilience and adaptability of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya in embracing new modes of connection during challenging times. We express our sincere gratitude to all participants for contributing to the success of this event and making it a vibrant and memorable experience. As we look forward to the upcoming festive season, let us carry the spirit of unity and celebration with us, knowing that our collective strength will continue to guide us through uncertain times.
