Report of 162nd birth day celebration of Rabindranath Tagore, 2021

In adherence to the virtual landscape, the Department of Physical Education, the Bengali Department, and the Student Union joined hands to organize the 162nd birthday celebration of Rabindranath Tagore on 5th April 2021. Despite the shift to an online mode, the program was marked by sincere reverence and active participation.

The online celebration commenced with the dignified garlanding of Rabindranath Tagore's photo by both teachers and students, symbolizing our collective homage to the great poet. Faculty members, with heartfelt enthusiasm, delivered speeches that illuminated Rabindranath Tagore's profound contributions to literature and society, connecting the virtual audience to the poet's enduring legacy.

The event witnessed the enthusiastic participation of students, teachers, and attendees, transcending the virtual boundaries. It served as a poignant tribute to Rabindranath Tagore, capturing the essence of his wisdom and philosophy in the digital realm. The seamless transition to an online format allowed us to uphold the spirit of the occasion while adapting to the challenges presented by the current circumstances. This virtual celebration not only commemorated the 162nd birthday of Rabindranath Tagore but also emphasized the resilience and adaptability of our academic community.

In conclusion, this online celebration was a collective effort to honor and celebrate the life and works of Rabindranath Tagore. We extend our appreciation to all participants for their active involvement, making this virtual event a fitting tribute to the great poet and philosopher.
