Legal Awareness camp 2019

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya successfully organized a legal awareness camp for students, featuring esteemed guests Judge Haradhan Mukhopadyay and Amit Chokarborti. The event aimed to enlighten students about legal matters and enhance their legal literacy.

Judge Haradhan Mukhopadyay delivered an insightful session, sharing his expertise and knowledge on various legal aspects. His engaging presentation provided students with valuable insights into the intricacies of the legal system, fostering a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities.

Amit Chokarborti, another distinguished guest, complemented the event with a session focusing on practical aspects of legal awareness. His talk covered real-life scenarios, helping students connect theoretical knowledge with everyday situations, thereby empowering them to navigate legal challenges with confidence.

The interactive nature of the camp allowed students to pose questions and seek clarifications, making the learning experience more enriching. The legal awareness camp served as a platform for students to engage directly with legal professionals, gaining exposure to different facets of the legal field.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Judge Haradhan Mukhopadyay and Amit Chokarborti for their valuable contributions. The camp not only broadened students' legal knowledge but also inspired them to be more aware and responsible citizens. Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya remains committed to providing holistic education by organizing such impactful initiatives.
