Report of Farewell program of NCC officer Dr. Shubhas Chandra, 2022

On 26th February 2022, a farewell program was organized by the NCC unit of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya to bid adieu to our esteemed NCC Officer, Dr. Shubhas Chandra. The program commenced with the gracious presence of our respected Principal, Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra, who addressed the gathering and highlighted the remarkable dedication and involvement of Dr. Chandra in fostering the growth of NCC activities in our college. The Principal acknowledged Dr. Chandra's unwavering commitment towards nurturing the NCC cadets and inspiring them to become responsible citizens. The farewell ceremony continued with vibrant cultural performances presented by the students, including mesmerizing dance performances, soulful songs, heart-touching recitations, and a captivating drama, all dedicated to honoring Dr. Shubhas Chandra. The performances reflected the deep sense of respect and admiration that the students held for their departing NCC Officer. During the event, Dr. Chandra himself addressed the audience and shared his heartfelt sentiments on this momentous occasion. He expressed his gratitude to the college, NCC cadets, and fellow faculty members for their unwavering support and cooperation throughout his tenure. Dr. Chandra also conveyed his best wishes for the future endeavors of the NCC unit and the college. The farewell program was a poignant and memorable event, symbolizing the end of an era with Dr. Shubhas Chandra's departure from the college. His dedication, leadership, and mentorship have left an indelible mark on the NCC unit, inspiring countless cadets to aim higher and serve the nation with pride.

The NCC unit, along with the entire college fraternity, extends its heartfelt thanks to Dr. Shubhas Chandra for his invaluable service and wishes him all the best for his future endeavors.
