Report of essay competition on "Democracy & Its Challenges", 2023

The Department of Political Science at Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya, in collaboration with the Government of West Bengal, Bhawanbanpur 2, successfully organized an essay competition on "Democracy & Its Challenges" and a poster competition on "Systematic Voters' Education & Electoral" on January 2, 2023. The event witnessed active participation from students who showcased their research, analytical skills, and creative talents on the designated topics. The competitions aimed to encourage a comprehensive exploration of democracy and raise awareness about the importance of systematic voters' education and the electoral process. After a thorough evaluation, winners were selected based on the quality of content and presentation. The Department expresses gratitude to all participants and anticipates hosting similar intellectually stimulating events in the future, fostering a deeper understanding of democratic principles and civic engagement.
