Report of Annual Leadership Camp 2022

The Annual Leadership Camp 2022, organized by the Department of Physical Education at Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya, proved to be a multifaceted and enriching experience for participating students. Held at Barabantalita High School under Contai subdivision from December 17 to December 22, 2022, the camp encompassed a range of activities. From campus cleaning instilling a sense of responsibility, to a cooking competition fostering teamwork and culinary skills, and engaging in a paper model and painting rally promoting creativity, the camp provided a holistic developmental platform. Various camp games not only enhanced physical fitness but also encouraged friendly competition. A social awareness program sensitized students to societal issues, emphasizing community responsibility. The camp concluded on a high note with a student-led campfire, creating an informal space for shared experiences and lasting connections. The event successfully blended leadership development, teamwork, creativity, and social consciousness, contributing to the overall growth of the participating students.
