Report of 13th National Voter Day 2023

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya enthusiastically observed the "13th National Voter Day 2023" on January 25, 2023, with an impactful collaboration between the Department of Political Science and the Philosophy Department. The event witnessed widespread participation from students, faculty members, and administrative staff, creating an atmosphere of civic awareness and engagement. The program featured informative sessions illuminating the importance of active participation in the democratic process, urging attendees to comprehend their role as responsible citizens. A highlight of the day was a hands-on voting simulation, providing students with a practical understanding of the electoral procedures. Speakers underscored the intrinsic value of each vote and its profound impact on shaping the nation's future. The event successfully instilled a sense of civic duty and responsibility among participants, reaffirming the college's dedication to nurturing socially conscious and informed individuals who actively contribute to the democratic ethos of the nation.
