Report of flood relief camp at Bhupatinagar, 2021

Under the Unnatabharat Avijan, a flood relief camp was established at Bhupatinagar on October 08, 2021, by the NSS members in collaboration with Mugberia Gram Panchayet. The primary objective of the camp was to extend assistance to individuals affected by the floods. The event witnessed a significant turnout of NSS members and community members, who actively participated in the relief operations, thereby ensuring its success. Apart from distributing essential supplies like food and water, the camp also provided counseling, medical aid, and other essential services. Volunteers also contributed to the cleanup and rehabilitation of the affected areas. Furthermore, the event featured programs aimed at raising awareness about safety measures and disaster preparedness. The flood relief camp, which saw the collective efforts of NSS members and local residents, epitomized the spirit of community service and unity.
