Report of Winter camp, 2019

During the week of January 23, 2019, to January 29, 2019, in Bhupatinagar, a comprehensive series of activities unfolded as part of a week-long camp. Commencing with prayers and college cleaning, the inaugural day set the tone for the event. Subsequent days saw a range of engagements including state-level certificate courses on Safe Blood Transfusion, seminars on Mouth Cancer, and social awareness campaigns in adopted villages. Evenings were marked by vibrant cultural competitions, fostering community spirit and participation. As the week progressed, activities extended beyond the college campus, with initiatives focused on consumer protection awareness in the main Bazar area and self-employment training in adopted villages. Seminars on holistic living and service to society enriched the program, with the week concluding joyfully with an excursion to a historical site, providing volunteers with a well-rounded experience of community engagement and personal growth.
