Report of AIDS awareness at Bhupatinagar, 2021

On December 1, 2021, at Bhupatinagar, the Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya NSS, in partnership with Mugberia Gram Panchayat, conducted an AIDS awareness session. The purpose of the event was to inform the public about AIDS and how to prevent it. The program, which featured instructional materials distribution, interactive conversations, and informational seminars, was enthusiastically attended by NSS members. A sizable number of community members participated in the events and the initiative was a success. This program is in line with the AIDS awareness campaign, which attempts to raise public knowledge of the disease and encourage preventative actions. In order to further empower and educate the community in the fight against AIDS, the NSS team intends to keep putting on these kinds of events.
