What is communication ?

- Derived from the Greek word "communicare" or "communico" which means "to share".
- Community implies a group of people living in one place.
- Languages are the codes of communications.

Types of communication.

Non-verbal communication

- Through signs & symbols.
- Non-verbal can go without verbal communication.
- Verbal can't go without non-verbal communication.

Face-to-Face Communication

The Way Your Message Is Conveyed

Verbal communication.

- Two types of verbal communication.
- (1) formal communication.
- (2) informal communication.

Formal communication

- We use this type of communication in offices and social gathering.
- Two types of formal communication.
- (1) Downward
- (2) Upward

(1) Downward communication

- Higher designation to lower designation.
- Ex. Boss ordered his worker.
- Here effect of this type of communication is very much than upward communication.

(2) Upward communication.

- Lower designation to higher designation.
- Ex. Worker request to his boss.
- Here the effect of communication is less than downward communication.

Vertical & Horizontal Communication

Informal communication.

- We use this type of communication with our family or friends.
- Three types of informal communication.
- (1) lateral
- (2) diagonal
- (3) grapevine

Lateral communication.

- Found among members working at the same level.
- Ex. Peer group.
- Most effective form of communication.
- Barrier of subordinates or boss is not present here.

Lateral Communication

Lateral communication

The horizontal information flow that occurs both within and between departments. The purpose of lateral communication is coordination

Diagonal communication.

- The path is mixture of vertical and horizontal movement.
- In large communications various departments need communication support from each other.

RUMORS

Grapevine communication.

- Also called as "backbiting" or "backstabbing".
- A backstabber is a colleague or an employee who acts like a friend in public but badmouth you in private.
