rural colleges”

Organized by IQAC

Date: 16 & 17th February -2023

Summary Report

Day 1 (16.02.2023)

The two day NAAC Sponsored National seminar on the above theme was organized by the IQAC of this college with a motto to engage teachers and other stakeholders in the thorough discussion on the Recent Accreditation Framework -22 of NAAC. It was held on 16th & 17th February with an approximately 200 delegates of different colleges and other aided institutions. The seminar was conducted in blended mode and it was primarily with the aim to discuss various parameters on NAAC's seven point criteria for AQAR as well as for the SSR writing. Before the seminar, the organizing committee, through its seminar brochure gave a call for paper submission and received an overwhelming response. Various papers on NAAC assessment and accreditation as well as other relevant subjects on teaching-learning evaluation from different affiliated colleges, and universities have been received by the organizing committee. The abstract book was distributed along with seminar kits to the delegate on the day of the seminar.

In the opening day on 16.02.2023, at the very onset, an inaugural song was presented by our music teacher, and then the official inauguration was initiated by lighting the holy lamp as well as by offering water to flower tub. The inaugurator and the Key-note speaker was Dr. Indrasish Banerjee, Senior Professor, Political Science department and IQAC-Co-ordinator of Ramakrishna Mission Vidyamandira, Howrah, Belur Math. The other invitees, who were present in the inaugural programme were, the Secretary of the Alumni Association Sri, Mathuranath Tripathy, (Alumni Registration Number- SO146162), Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra, Principal, Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya, Governing Body member Sri Ashwini Khatua, Senior Bank Official Sri Ajit Nanda, All IQAC board members, Dr. Pradipta Kumar Mishra, Principal and Invited Speaker, Yogoda Satsanga Palpala Mahavidyalaya, Purba Medinipur, West Bengal Dr. Ratan Kumar Samanta, Chairperson, Swarnamoyee Jogendranath Mahavidyalaya, Purba Medinipur, West Bengal, Dr. Samu Mahali, Principal, Sitananda College, Purba Medinipur, West Bengal, Dr. Abdul Motin, Principal, Tamralipta Mahavidyalaya, Purba Medinipur, West Bengal.

After receiving the guests, the President of the seminar as well as the Principal of the college Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra delivered his welcome address. In the beginning of his speech, he conveyed his thanks to NAAC for financial support. He had enunciated that the recent changes in the accreditation framework by the NAAC is the reflection of the pathways which was inscribed in the NEP-2020 and it was in tuned with the global structure of education, which to say, had a wider implications in the present day teaching learning process. He pointed out that the criterion wise discussion is very much needed to get a strong grip over the ideas that had been displayed in the RAF. He asked all the principals and teachers of different aided colleges who were present in the seminar to work relentlessly to meet the challenges which are new in the framework. He discussed about the benchmarks which were published in the NAAC's website and asked the audience to follow the criterion wise benchmarking for the best result and also explained various key indicators so that each UG and PG colleges get a good marks by overarching the general areas.

The IQAC Coordinator, Dr.Prasenjit Ghosh and NAAC Coordinator Dr.Kalipada Maity both have addressed the audience on the seminar topic. They welcomed all participants and discussed the efforts of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya in achieving excellence and then briefed about the key components of the revised assessment and accreditation process. Dr.Ghosh has addressed about the success of the IQAC in strengthening the teaching learning and evolution process in the affiliated colleges. He, emphasized that according to the RAF, near about 70% of the assessment process will be counted on online mode wherein all the quantitative metrics submitted by the higher education institutes will be thoroughly verified and validated by a Data Verification and Validation (DVV) partner. Dr.Maity motivated the audience to ensure quality in higher education by pointed out different areas and briefing the loopholes where the HEI's need to be focused strongly.

The Key-note address was delivered by Dr, Indrasish Banerjee, IQAC Coordinator of Ramakrishna Mission Vidyamandira, Belurmath, Howrah, West Bengal. He had discussed several areas of Recent Accreditation Framework of NAAC that included A&A. He had also pointed out key factors on Benchmarking patterns and explained how to get a good score in the new framework. The success stories of RKM Vidyamandira, the work done by the RKM Vidyamanida by which it ranked 3rd in the NIRF as well as awarded NAAC A++ grade were revealed in the seminar. He had framed his lecture on specific few areas which are mostly dealt with academic oriented as well as administrative workforce. He has elaborated on how the revised accreditation framework was created in 2020 and what was its vision. He had also emphasized on Assignment outcome, program outcome and explained how these areas are different from each other. He described about the qualitative and quantitative research fields. According to his idea, the motto content of the HEI's should be clear and must reflect in the various activities. In addition to that, he had discussed about the course outcome and programme outcome. After his deliberations there was a question answer session, where he had answered various doubt clearings questions asked by the audience.

The next session was conducted in online mode. The entire session was live telecasted in YouTube as well as in the ZOOM Platform. The invited speaker was Dr. Neelesh Pandey, Assistant Adviser, NAAC, Bangalore. He had presented a short and treasured paper on the overall accreditation process. He delivered his talk mainly on A&A methodology. He had thoroughly discussed the aims and objectives of NAAC towards New Accreditation Framework. He also appreciated the efforts made by NAAC to improve the quality of Higher Education in India. He emphasized on the importance of the various criteria developed for NAAC accreditation which enable the HEI's to meet the current requirements and global standards in the field of higher education. He also pointed out different ways where the HEI's can score much. His speech was followed by question answer session.

After the Lunch break, another invited speaker, Prof. Debabrata Mitra, Professor, North Bengal University, West Bengal had addressed the audience with a very impressive talk in online mode. He was vastly experienced and had a strong knowledge of the Accreditation Process by visiting various colleges. His lecture was also followed by question answer session. In the 3rd session of the seminar, scholarly papers were presented by the delegates that dealt with various accreditation issues in the rural based higher educational institutions. They had also discussed about the problems and their remedies by focusing upon the RAF 2022. The topic has been widely discussed by the invited speakers and other paper presenters which enriched the audience. Speakers were significantly contributed to the main ideas that how could we systematize the process of accreditation in a rural setup.

Day-2(17.02.2023)

On the second day, the invited speaker was Dr.Madhumangal Pal, Professor, Department of Applied Mathematics with Oceanology and Computer Programming, Director of IQAC, Vidyasagar University, West Bengal. He had delivered his speech on “Massive Open Online Course (MOOC): Scope, Opportunities and Challenges” and showed how this type of course is now-a-days essential to expand the scope of higher education to those who were unable to continue their study. He had also pointed out that this course can be taken up by the aided colleges to enhance their periphery of teaching learning. His talk was followed by question answer session.

Another Invited speaker Prof. Binod Tripathy, Professor, Department of Mathematics, Tripura University, Tripura was present in the virtual platform. He had delivered his speech on - “AQAR & SSR - Writing & Submission in the Light of Revised NAAC Guidelines”. He has delivered an excellent talk on AQAR and SSR writing. According to his findings the colleges and universities should follow few areas on the aforesaid theme by which the rural based colleges can score a good number in the recent accreditation framework. His talk was also followed by question answer session.

Dr.Pradipta Kumar Misra, Principal, Yogoda Satsanga Palpara Mahavidyalaya has delivered his speech on RAF and the role of the rural based colleges. He pointed out that the Publication of the teachers in UGC care listed journals is very much important to score better in the recent framework of accreditation. He has pointed out each areas of the NEP-2020 and derived his lecture on the basis of RAF. He elaborated about the seven criterions, key indicators and the subsequent metric involved in the manual in respect to the rural colleges. While keeping in mind the problems that are occurred in the context of rural backwardness, he had briefed the optional metrics, and explained how to get this through proper understanding of the problem and their utility to the HEIs and the related rules to be followed while opting for these metrics. His lecture was also followed by question and answer session.

After the presentations of the invited speakers, the participants were presented their papers.

Valedictory session was also very fruitful. Dr.Bidhan Chandra Samanta, HOD, Chemistry and Research Cell Coordinator Coordinated the session and delivered his short speech, According to him, Every educational institution should be devoted to real education, innovative research and extension works to progress the economic and social development and to respond to new challenges and opportunities through a well-organized planning process. As per the outlines adorned in NEP-2020, an institution should not serve as merely, a primary wing to transfer knowledge for economic growth, but is required to be more socially responsible that is, higher education has been considered as both an ‘engine’ for innovation and a ‘catalyst’ for sustainability development. So, to cope up with the recommendations of NEP-2020, NAAC, the premier accreditation bodies, has framed a new accreditation framework to meet the societal needs.

Vote of Thanks was given by Smt. Jonaki Biswas , Convener Women's cell. She expressed special gratitude to the NAAC for giving financial support and also congratulated the resource persons and participants for who were present in the two days national seminar for their informative and useful presentations. She also expressed gratitude to the college administration, teaching and non-teaching staffs, students, alumni and other stakeholders for their constant encouragement and support in conducting the national level seminar and making the seminar a grand success.

Key highlights of the seminar

- ❖ There were 35 papers including the papers of the invited speakers were being presented in the seminar. The details of the papers are supplied with the abstract book.
- ❖ The seminar was conducted in blended mode. Three (03) Sessions were on online mode through ZOOM and Google Platform. It was live telecasted and recorded for future reference
- ❖ Around 200 participants from different colleges and own staffs were present.
- ❖ After questionnaire, in the final discussion, it has been decided to publish a collected volume with the ISBN.

Suggestions/ Recommendations/ Action Plans (Outcome of the seminar)

The outcome of the seminar is immensely helpful for the organizing college. The teachers and other stakeholders of other colleges were also benefited from the deliberations made by the eminent speakers. The seven point criterions of NAAC were thoroughly discussed which was proved to be fruitful towards other college particularly who were working on SSR or AQAR to face the NAAC in near future. The IQAC has placed a report to the principal to implement various areas that had been explored in the seminar to be implemented for the betterment and semantic enrichment of its available resources.

(A sample feedback form is attached herewith.)

Follow up actions, the institutions proposes to undertake

To give the best efforts according to the resolution of the seminar, the IQAC has suggested few tasks to the Principal in order to face A&A process significantly better. As the institution is going to face NAAC 4th Cycle in the coming year, it is necessary to overcome any constraints and working together will be the key success by achieving the desired score within limited time. The Principal accepted the tasks supplied by the IQAC and agreed to pursue the same to the Governing Body for implementation. A comprehensive feedback was collected from the participants about the seminar and placed before the IQAC for further reference.
